The screenshot shows a PayPal checkout form. At the top, there are two input fields for 'First' and 'Last' names. Below these are several address fields: 'Street address', 'Apt., ste., bldg. (optional)', 'City', 'State' (a dropdown menu), and 'ZIP code' (with '19020' entered). A checkbox labeled 'Shipping same as billing address' is checked. Below the address fields, there is a message: 'If your details match a PayPal account, we'll add this purchase to give you eligible benefits like Purchase Protection.' followed by 'By continuing, you confirm you're 18 years or older.' A large blue 'Continue' button is prominently displayed, with a hand cursor icon clicking on it. Below the button, it says 'Have a PayPal account? Log In'. At the bottom of the form, there are links for 'Français', 'Español', and '中文' (Chinese), along with a small US flag icon. The footer contains links for 'Policies', 'Legal', and 'Privacy', and a copyright notice '© 1999 - 2025'.
