

Terms and Conditions

As a private, Christian school, Gateway requires its teachers (a.k.a. parents/guardians) to be Christians, attend church, obey all pertinent laws, and adhere to Christian morality and conduct as defined in the Bible. Because we are a Christian school and home-educating parents/guardians are our teachers, we reserve the right to dismiss or refuse enrollment to parents, guardians, or students not adhering to biblical, Christian standards.
